

Finding and Buying Vacation and Leisure Travel from Leck Travel Service

This program is designed to provide you with the latest vacation offers from top suppliers in the travel industry. The data is updated many times a day. Our search and comparison tools will help you search through the data to find a travel offer that meets your personal interests. When you have found a trip or package that interests you, you'll be able to send that information through the internet to one of our Destination Specialists. OR you may wish to click on our Help Me Plan My Trip button on the website that will link you directly to our specialists who will contact you within one hour during a regular business week.

Our search engine program has four primary areas:

- Current Offers/Quick Search

- This main page shows you a Quick Search on the left side of the search page. This area provides two folder selection titled: Cruises and Packages, Tours, Lodging. On the lower left side of the search page, it also provides a Quick Link section to the hottest deals or specials packages as well as other travel offers. You can examine details by clicking each link.. You can also perform a quick search of our database of thousands of travel offers. Switch between the tabs featured in the Quick Search area on the left side of the search page to choose the type of travel you want. The offers are updated daily.

- Featured Specials

- This box on the right side of the main search page offers the latest information on a variety of travel offerings ranging from sports events to river cruises to the most popular trips, to European specials and more.

- Search Results

- When you perform a Quick Search, you will see a list of offers as your search results. This list allows you to sort the results and lets you filter the results by type of travel. Basic information about each travel offer is displayed, and you can easily click the More Details link for additional information.
- Sorting - Select the method for sorting that best fits your interests. You can sort by Price, Date or number of nights, among others.
- Comparing Offers - Click the Compare checkbox next to as many as three offers, then click the Compare button. You will see a page that displays details for those offers side-by-side

- Trip Request

- Sending your Trip Request - Click the Email button when you're ready to send us your trip request. When you submit the Trip Request, your contact information and the list of offers you've selected will be automatically sent to us. We will then respond to your inquiry in the manner you've requested.
- Saving your Trip Request - Click the Save button to save your Trip Request for later use. This will allow you to come back later and add, change, or remove offers from the same Trip Request.

Frequently Asked Questions About the Search Engine Tool

How do I use this search engine tool?

The first page you will see is the Quick Search/Featured Specials page. You can get to vacation deals several ways. You can click on the links in the Featured Specials or Quick Links boxes, you can perform a Quick Search of our entire offer database. Once you have located the perfect vacation offer, add it to your Trip Request by clicking the 'Contact Us' button that's provided within the search engine frame. Use your Trip Request and personal profile to organize your vacation planning and/or communicate with us about desired vacations. OR you may wish to give us a general overview of what you're hoping for and use our website's MAIN Contact Us section to send your Leisure or Corporate Travel information and one of our Destination Specialists will perform a search for you.

How do I search for a particular vacation destination?

On the main Leck Travel search engine page, locate the Quick Search box on the left side of the page. Click on the tab that is appropriate for the type of travel you want: Cruises or Packages, Tours, Lodging. Fill in a few simple criteria and click Go. You can also perform a Detailed Search by clicking on the button in the Quick Search box. This will allow you to specify more exact criteria when searching.

If I know what supplier I would like to see, how can I search only their offers?

From inside the Quick Search folder, click on the Detailed Search link. This will take you to the Detailed Search page. In the box labeled "What company would you like to travel with?", enter the name of the travel supplier that you wish to use. Click the Search button and you will be presented with a list of that supplier's offers.

How do I get the best search results?

Most of the time, our newly enhanced Quick Search will get you the results you're looking for. Start by entering a broad range of dates and travel types to see more offers. Then return to the Detailed Search page and narrow down the criteria if the results are too broad. OR you may wish to skip the search process altogether by clicking on the button to the right of the search engine box and displayed on the main website page called: Help Me Plan My Trip. Provide us with some details to help us better understand your travel plans and preferences. One of our Destination Specialists will do the research for you and contact you right away.

What is a Trip Request?

The Trip Request is a way for you to organize vacations of interest. Our form helps you describe your travel interests so we can help you plan your next vacation. The Trip Request is not a shopping cart and does not require a purchase. It is simply a planning and communication tool.

When do I use the Trip Request?

If you see a vacation special that is of interest, place it in your Trip Request. Also, if you see something that is close to what you are looking for, but not exactly, include this in the Trip Request and let us help you find exactly what you are looking for by filling out the Additional Information section of the Trip Request.

What do I do if the Trip Request does not appear to send my email?

If you are experiencing problems with the Trip Request, please contact us by using the General Information Contact Us page on the main website outside of the search engine box. Please be as descriptive as possible when reporting errors to better help us identify the problem.

What if I have a problem navigating through the site?

One cause for many navigational problems is the use of an older browser version. The supported browsers for this site are: Internet Explorer 4.0 or higher, and Netscape 4.7 or higher. Your browser must also support Cookies and Javascript. Please check to see if your browser meets these minimum requirements. If it does not, you can download a newer version of the browser from the Microsoft or Netscape websites.

Some personal firewall software can also cause problems when navigating through this and other sites. This is because some personal firewalls block certain types of content, preventing the page from displaying correctly. If you are having problems viewing pages on this site, and you use a personal firewall, check your firewall logs to see if there is any indication of traffic that is being blocked. You should then be able to modify your firewall's configuration to allow the blocked traffic to go through.

OR simply click on the Contact Us page on the main menu on our main website outside of the search engine box. Fill out information for either Leisure or Corporate Travel and one of our Destination Specialists will perform a search for you to find the best match for your travel preferences.
